

EMC-2009
PRELIMINARY INFORMATION FOR EXHIBITORS
OF THE EXHIBITION CONCOMITANT THE VIII INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM
ON ELECTROMAGNETIC COMPATIBILITY AND ELECTROMAGNETIC ECOLOGY

St. Petersburg, Russia
June 16-19, 2009

The Exhibition will be located in the premises of St. Petersburg State Electrotechnical University "LETI", St. Petersburg, Russia. The visitors will have an opportunity to familiarize with the newest developments on electromagnetic compatibility (EMC) and electromagnetic ecology (EME).

The leading Russian and foreign enterprises and organizations specializing in the field of EMC and EME will take part in the Exhibition. In particular the exhibitors of EMC'2007 are the following:

- Amplifier Research <http://www.ar-worldwide.com>
- Research Institute of Pulse Technique <http://www.niit.ru/english/>
- Feuerherdt <http://shielding-online.com/>
- Amideon Systems http://www.amideon.com/English/about_us_eng.html
- Emerson & Cuming Microwave Products NV <http://www.eccosorb.com/>
- «EMCI» http://www.emtest.ch/what_is/basics.php
- Kedah Electronics Engineering <http://eng.kedah.ru/about/>
- Elektronische Messgerate Vertriebs GmbH <http://www.emvgmbh.de/english/>
- SME «Proryv» http://proryv.karelia.ru/english/about_us_e.php
- ELEMCOM http://www.smtu.ru/rus/elemcom/news_e.html
- Magazine «Power Electronics» <http://www.power-e.ru/eng.php>

The Exhibition Organizers hope that the exhibitors will be attracted by the jubilee character of EMC ' 2009 Symposium which is devoted to Professor Alexander S. Popov's 150th anniversary. He was the first elected director of Electrotechnical University (in those years Institute) and a prominent scientist who made a significant contribution to the invention of radio. This anniversary certainly increases the number of expected visitors both experts, including those who will participate in the Symposium, and ordinary users of home appliances for whom questions of observance of admissible norms on EMC and EME remain to be one of the major factors.

In order to successfully participate in the exhibition and attract as many visitors to your stand as possible, Exhibition Organizers offer you a comprehensive range of advertising materials free of charge, of course: individual service while choosing a stand space; personal care before and during the exhibition; lunches in the days of the Symposium; international advertising campaign; substantial press activities; vendor presentations within the exhibition area.

EMC ' 2009 exhibitors are offered the following:

A standard stand - 6 m² (3 m * 2 m). The stand is equipped with an exhibition table (2m*1m), an office table (0,8 m * 0,8 m), two chairs and has 220 V, 50 Hz electricity supply (Universal Euro Plug-in required). The fee for the standard stand for four-day exhibition (Tuesday, 16 June morning till Friday, 19 June noon) is 1400 € including one Registration Fee and 18 % VAT.
